

INTERNATIONAL COACH FEDERATION CERTIFIED AT PCC LEVEL

- The Professional Certified Coach (PCC) designation is awarded by the International Coach Federation (ICF), the leading nonprofit enforcing ethical and quality standards in the coaching profession around the world. The PCC represents 125+ hours of coach-specific accredited training and 750+ hours of documented coaching (90% of which must be paid for by the client.) It also requires live testing and long-term work with a mentor coach.
- As of 2018, I've completed 1600+ qualified coaching hours and am working toward my Master Coaching Certification (MCC).

COACHING RESULTS: WHAT PEOPLE SAY

"I decided to invest in myself by asking for Darcy's assistance, but I didn't expect to feel so invigorated and empowered from the experience. She helped me to move beyond my self prescribed limitations so that I could move forward with the next phase of my career with clarity and confidence." --Jack, Atlanta, GA

"[Darcy's] coaching has helped me to focus and be more effective at work, as well as define what I want in the future. I am working on not being afraid to ask for what I want and speak for myself and my best interests. I cannot recommend her highly enough." Liz, St. Petersburg, FL
