

FROM COACH DARCY EIKENBERG

THE CAREER DECISION LIFECYCLE SM

At Red Cape Revolution, what we've learned by coaching successful professionals all over the world is that every major career decision follows the same path--a lifecycle.

There are certain places within the lifecycle where we can run into decision traps. At those points, we stay stuck and go in circles until we use specific strategies to move us forward.

What's more, we think of the decision as the end of the process, but it's not. To ensure that the career decision feels successful to us, we have to continue to tend it through steps 5, 6, and 7. This work is based in part on the teaching of William Bridges and his book, Managing Transitions.

WHAT I DO

Today's leaders & high performing professionals are experiencing more change than ever before. Those changes are overwhelming, complex, and move fast.

So I teach fresh, practical strategies you can use every day to manage through change easier and make better, more confident decisions with less stress, in less time.

As a professionally trained coach with a strong sense of ethics, I'm also a confidential sounding board to help you map out next steps in safe, non-judgmental ways.

My clients feel—and become—more successful in their work (and actually, in their lives outside of work, too.)
